

COALITION AGAINST VIOLENCE

‘Community Services Directory’

The COALITION AGAINST VIOLENCE ‘Community Services Directory’ was created from various databases throughout the City of Pittsburgh, including the United Way Help database, as well as the Pittsburgh Public Schools Community Resource database. We also have included information provided from organizations and agencies that received solicitations directly from COALITION AGAINST VIOLENCE.

This Directory is to assist individuals in finding help within their communities, as well as providing opportunities for those who would like to provide financial, in-kind resources and/or volunteer support. If you do not find what you are looking for, we would suggest that you go to the website of United Way of Allegheny County to find additional resource providers (<http://www.unitedwaypittsburgh.org/> and click on search HelpConnections).

The COALITION AGAINST VIOLENCE has also developed a full strategy document, COALITION AGAINST VIOLENCE “Creating Long-Term Solutions to Deep-Rooted Problems (Moving from Complaint to Possibility...From Planning to Implementation), which provides every segment of our community with numerous action steps which, if implemented, will impact the violence that plagues too many of our neighborhoods. That document can be accessed at the Black Political Empowerment Project (B-PEP) website at www.b-pep.net and at www.gspia.pitt.edu/cav or by calling 412-758-7898.

The COALITION AGAINST VIOLENCE is committed to Pittsburgh 250 and making Pittsburgh a city with less violence!

Special thanks to Genie Beckom, B-PEP Administrative Assistant and First Vice President of the Beltzhoover Neighborhood Council, for her research on this directory!

Services Description: For the past thirty years, The Center for Family Excellence has been working to help families survive and thrive amid adversity. Our five primary outreach components: Right Start, Family Reunification, First Steps, Male Coalition and Child Care work to restore, sustain and strengthen family relationships that are under potential distress. The focal point of our outreach is our Values for Life and Event Processing models which are designed to: (1) promote healthy child development, (2) improve parenting skills, (3) improve relational skills among adults, and (4) provide family support services. The values that form the core of our services are: love and respect, interpersonal skills, learning orientation, self-confidence, self-persistence, self-esteem, and self-reliance. The Center for Family Excellence staff works directly with families, and collaborates with other human service providers, to prevent and interrupt cycles of behavior that are destructive of individuals, families and neighborhoods.

Program Name: WIA Youth Work Activity
Provider: Hill House Association

Services Description: A variety of employment opportunities for participants are allowable under the WIA. These include: a) Unpaid employment opportunities, such as job shadowing; b) Career exploration activities (definition: career exploration exposes a youth to a range of careers and introduces him/her to the skills and attitudes associated with workplace success. Generally, this activity is applicable to 14 / 15 year olds only, is of short duration [approximately 6 weeks], and often (but not necessarily) takes place during the summer. Participants are traditionally paid a stipend of $4.00 / hour); c) Traditional work experience (definition: a short-term or part-time training assignment with a public or private nonprofit organization for a participant who needs assistance in becoming accustomed to basic work requirements. The wage is traditionally $5.50 / hour); d) Private sector internships (definition: these temporary [not to exceed 500 hours], subsidized work assignments with private for-profit companies are designed to provide participants with enhancement of their long term employability through employer provided training, development of some marketable skills, on-site exposure to work and the requirements for successful job retention, establishment of a work history, and increased placement opportunities. The wage is traditionally $5.50 / hour. Generally, 50% of the wage would be paid by the service provider, and 50% by the employer [although other arrangements may be considered on a case by case basis], and there should be a strong employer commitment to hire upon internship completion).

Program Name: WIA Youth Work Activity - Garfield

Provider: Allegheny County Library Association

Services Description: A variety of employment opportunities for participants are allowable under the WIA. These include: a) Unpaid employment opportunities, such as job shadowing; b) Career exploration activities (definition: career exploration exposes a youth to a range of careers and introduces him/her to the skills and attitudes associated with workplace success. Generally, this activity is applicable to 14 / 15 year olds only, is of short duration [approximately 6 weeks], and often (but not necessarily) takes place during the summer. Participants are traditionally paid a stipend of $4.00 / hour); c) Traditional work experience (definition: a short-term or part-time training assignment with a public or private nonprofit organization for a participant who needs assistance in becoming accustomed to basic work requirements. The wage is traditionally $5.50 / hour); d) Private sector internships (definition: these temporary [not to exceed 500 hours], subsidized work assignments with private for-profit companies are designed to provide participants with enhancement of their long term employability through employer provided training, development of some marketable skills, on-site exposure to work and the requirements for successful job retention, establishment of a work history, and increased placement opportunities. The wage is traditionally $5.50 / hour. Generally, 50% of the wage would be paid by the service provider, and 50% by the employer [although other arrangements may be considered on a case by case basis], and there should be a strong employer commitment to hire upon internship completion).
